

TAKES OVERDOSE OF HER TABLETS

Death Comes Quickly to Norfolk Woman After Taking Medicine.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., December 11.—Taking an overdose of medicine tablets, Mrs. Charles H. Shelton died suddenly this morning at her home, No. 1117 Claiborne Avenue, Brambleton. She was the wife of Charles H. Shelton, and was well-known in the section. Mrs. Shelton was about fifty years of age, and had been a sufferer from nervous troubles for a score of years. She had been taking the medicine for some time, and found great relief from it. It is supposed that she accidentally took an overdose.

Early this morning, as she was arising for the day, she called to her son, Alfred, who was in the next room. She fell, and the young man immediately called in a physician, but death followed in a few minutes.

Mrs. Shelton is survived by her husband and three sons—Charles C., William D., and Alfred W., and one daughter—Mrs. Frank C. Jacobs, of Elizabeth City, N. C. The funeral is announced for to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock from the residence.

CHILD TAKEN AWAY.

Serious Condition When Norfolk Officer Makes Raid.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., December 11.—Charged with having her child, nine years of age, in a disorderly house, Annie Copeland, the mother, was today fined $25 and costs and sent to jail for twenty-four days by Justice Simmons. Lilly Meyers, the keeper of the house, was assessed $25 and costs, with ten days in jail, on the charge of keeping a disorderly house.

The little child was found in the house at an early hour this morning when it was raided by Special Officer Bourke, of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children. The little girl, Mary Copeland, was turned over to the society by the police, and will be cared for.

The mother's explanation was that she did not desire to carry the child to the house, but she had no money, the woman who was keeping her refused to do so. The mother, however, had no other place to carry her, others substantiated the claims of the woman, and for this reason Justice Simmons was lenient with the woman. Up to a month ago the child resided with her grandparents in Portsmouth.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
KENNEDY, VA., December 11.—Thursday morning William Collier, colored, while on the way to his home, near Kara, from Overta, was shot and killed at Flat Rock Creek crossing. Paddy Neblett, a colored man, was on duty, having found sufficient evidence against him, and sent him to jail for a further trial.

Neblett, while on the stand, stated that he went with Collier, a part of the way home, looking after his rabbit trap. The mother of Neblett had on the day following ordered that the shotgun be placed in a shed near the home. It is supposed that he secured the gun before leaving home. The gun was found in the same place, the right-hand barrel indicating that it had been recently fired. The rear part of Collier's head was shot clear off, and he fell dead on the spot. Collier is a negro of thirty-five years of age. Neblett, a boy of sixteen years, is considered a very bad and desperate character.

News of Petersburg

Times-Dispatch Bureau,
192 North Sycamore Street,
Petersburg, Va., December 11.

In the Hustings Court to-day the cases against certain anti-Tartie members of the Harrison Street (colored) Baptist Church, against whom rules had been issued to show cause why they should not be adjudged in contempt of court, in having, as was alleged, violated a decree of the court, came up for further hearing. Mr. Bernard Mann was present as counsel for the respondents, and Messrs. R. B. Davis and Paul Pettit as counsel for the complainants. After some discussion and sundry suggestions, Messrs. Davis and Pettit withdrew the contempt proceedings without prejudicing the cases, and an agreement was finally entered into to the following effect: That no business meeting of the church should be held until the regular business meeting in January for the election of officers; that the Rev. Dr. J. M. Pilcher and the Rev. Dr. W. C. Taylor, two prominent white Baptist ministers in this city, should preside at this annual business meeting as moderators and conduct its proceedings; that these two moderators, if they deem it necessary, may call in a third white Baptist minister to assist them, and that the result of the proceedings at this annual meeting, so far as the election of officers is concerned, shall be accepted as final by both factions.

This agreement is apparently satisfactory to both sides, and will be carried out in good faith. It is to be conducted strictly in accordance with the constitution and laws of the church, and it may be that other business than that of the election of officers, which has been the subject of the controversy, may be brought up for consideration. In the meantime Pastor Tartie is to preach as usual, and it is suggested that those who do not care to hear him can stay away.

Some time ago, as has been published, Field Brothers, a corporation dealing in lumber in this city, applied to the Corporation Commission to be dissolved, and was dissolved. Thereupon stockholders of the corporation instituted proceedings in the Hustings Court for the appointment of a receiver to take charge of the assets and wind up the affairs of the concern. A receiver (Mr. Vosburg, of Pittsburgh, Pa.) was appointed and gave bond in the sum of $25,000 for the proper discharge of his duties. Shortly afterwards some of the creditors of the firm, who were not being satisfied, filed a petition in the bankruptcy court to have the said concern declared a bankrupt and a receiver appointed to take charge of the assets. A receiver was appointed by Judge Vardill, in the petition of Mr. P. S. Pugh, of this city, and under the direction of the bankruptcy court, he filed a petition in the suit pending in the Hustings Court, asking that the assets of Field Brothers be turned over to him, and that he be allowed to examine the books of the concern. This motion of the receiver, however, will be heard in the Hustings Court to-morrow. The two receivers are each represented by able counsel.

NEGROES TRY TO MOB A WHITE MAN

Report of Miscegenation Is Cause of Outbreak in Warwick.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NEWPORT NEWS, VA., December 11.—Warner T. Flanders, of Haverhill, Mass., a former inmate of the National Soldiers' Home at Hampton, who was reported to have been shot to death near New Hall last Saturday night, was taken in custody by the local police last night at the Telephone Exchange, where he was telephoning to friends in Boston to inform them that he was alive.

Flanders escaped from the party that attacked him, lost his way in the woods and walked to York River. Then he walked to this city, arriving here Tuesday. He had a small sum of money with him, and securing board in North End, had been living there quietly without venturing forth into the city until the report that he was killed appeared in the local papers.

Flanders had been living at the home of an aged negro, Margaret Ashby, in upper Warwick county recently. Rumor had it that the man, who is sixty-six years old, was married to one of the old woman's daughters, a young mulatto, who lives in Haverhill. Saturday night a party of six negroes, headed by a white man, appeared at Margaret Ashby's home and called Flanders out. When the man appeared the visitors opened fire upon him with shotguns, and he fled for his life into the woods. Trees peppered with shot bear witness to the truth of this part of the story.

Flanders admits the truth of all the story, except as to his marriage with the young mulatto. He says he knows the daughter of the old woman, but is not married to her. He does not seem anxious to make complaint against his would-be murderers, and says he will go home as soon as he is at liberty. He is now a witness for the county authorities.

Remarkable Christmas Present.

Among the curious Christmas presents of this year will be that of a man of national reputation, which has been all year in the making.

Way last January the present was decided upon, and a friend of the prominent gentleman requested the Burleigh Press to publish a notice of the man, who was at that time in New York, to watch every paper in America and to take up every item which appeared concerning the man.

The clipping bureau people followed instructions, and now present the history of one year in the life of this special man.

The history ends just after election, and the 26,612 newspaper items found include everything from a three-line editorial mention to full-page illustrated stories. These have been mounted on 3,200 great sheets of Irish linen paper and bound into three massive volumes.

At the head of each item is the name and date of paper clipped from, this information having been put in the book during that time this year, so that readers, clippers, sorters, mounters and binders. Every newspaper of importance is represented.

This is merely a specimen of some of the unique orders which get into the Burleigh Bureau, for the extent to which clippings are used by individuals and by business concerns seems to be remarkable.

There are many people in private as well as in public life who need press clippings and don't know it. It might be said during that time this year, Burleigh, who is said to be so well known that a letter simply addressed "Burleigh, New York," will reach him with no delay.
